

GREAT STRIKE TO BE AVERTED

English Railway Workmen May Decide Not To Call Their Strike After All.

AGREE TO DELAY UNTIL NOV. 6TH

President Of The London Board Of Trade Takes Steps To Stop Trouble That Would Be Disastrous To All England.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 2.—Prospects are now that the proposed strike of the railway employees' union may be postponed and perhaps entirely averted. It is understood that the union is now in conference with the railway companies and the government, and that a compromise is being worked out. The strike, if called, would be disastrous to all England.

Up to Lloyd George
Lloyd George, president of the London Board of Trade, has taken active charge of the situation, and hopes to be able to avert the trouble entirely, although many points still remain unsettled between the two factions.

Has Compromise
Mr. George has effected a temporary compromise with the strikers and the railway companies which is thought will be made permanent when a conference between representatives of the two is held.

Will Wait
At a full meeting of the executive committee of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants held this morning it was decided to postpone all action on yesterday's resolution favoring a strike.

Wait Conference
This step was taken owing to the fact that on November sixth George has arranged for a meeting at which representatives of the Railway Servants' union are invited to be present.

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES ARE LOOKED FOR IN MOST CASES

Republican-Hearst Combination In New York An Interesting Feature In Elections Occurring Tuesday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Nov. 2.—The present contest for county officers in New York has excited almost as much interest as many of the recent elections. The interest is due chiefly to the fact that the republicans have fused with Hearst's Independence League on the county ticket. Perhaps the fusion arrangement would not attract so much attention except for the fact that it was brought about by Herbert Parsons, chairman of the republican county committee and hitherto looked upon as President Roosevelt's personal representative in New York politics, county and state. A considerable element among the republicans appears to be dissatisfied with the alliance with Hearst and as a result it is generally believed that Tammany will elect its county ticket by a large majority than usual.

The only state officers to be elected in New York next Tuesday are two judges of the court of appeals. The republicans and the democrats have nominated the same judicial ticket and so there is no contest.

Exciting Contest in Maryland.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 2.—The present campaign in Maryland is an exciting contest for big political stakes. In addition to the state ticket, including the governor, controller and attorney general, a legislature is to be elected that will elect two United States senators—one to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Gorman, the other for the succeeding full term.

The republican state ticket, headed by George R. Gathier, of Baltimore, for governor, is considered one of the strongest that the party has ever named in Maryland. Austin L. Crothers, who resigned from the judiciary on being nominated for governor by the democrats, is a man of good family and high personal character.

The issue this year in the election has centered by a democratic legislature. The republicans allege that under those laws most of the colored voters are disfranchised. The party has waged a vigorous contest and it is hopeful of electing its candidate for governor. The democrats are believed to be somewhat handicapped by the fact that they have lacked a competent leader since the death of Senator Gorman.

Kentucky's Contest.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2.—Kentucky, of the half dozen or more states to hold elections next week, probably has the most interesting contest on her hands. The interest is due chiefly to the strong efforts the republicans are making to elect the governor and the equally determined campaign put up by the democrats. Not only are the republicans working for their state ticket, but they are also seeking to capture the legislature. Should they be successful in the latter endeavor it would mean the defeat of Governor Beckham for the United States Senate.

The republicans have nominated Augustus E. Wilson for governor, and the democratic standard bearer is Judge R. W. Hager. The republicans have resurrected the Gobel affair and its ramifications as one of the issues of the campaign, while the democrats have brought the temperance question to the fore.

Hot Fight in San Francisco.
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 2.—A three-cornered race for the municipal government stakes will be decided at Tuesday's election in this city. Mayor Taylor, who came into office after the overthrow of Mayor Schmitz, is seeking re-election and has the support of the reform element of both political parties.

Daniel A. Ryan is the candidate for the straight republican, and P. H. McCarthy is the candidate for the Union Labor party. The labor vote predominates in San Francisco and it would seem as though McCarthy, the candidate of the Union Labor party, would be elected, unless either of the other two candidates succeeds in cutting in on the labor vote.

The Contest in New Jersey.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 2.—The gubernatorial campaign in New Jersey, which will end with the election next Tuesday, has been fought out on purely state issues, chief among them being the excise question. The republican candidate is J. Franklin Fort, a justice of the supreme court. Frank S. Katzenbach, a former mayor of this city, is the democratic candidate. The prohibition, independent, socialist and Socialist-Labor parties also have candidates in the field.

"Pennys" in Line.
Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—The political fight in Pennsylvania this year is for state treasurer. The independent movement which was so prominent two years ago has been abandoned and as there is to be a straight party vote the republicans expect to carry the state by the usual majority. John O. Sheatz, who has long been prominent in republican politics in Pennsylvania, is the party candidate for state treasurer.

Vote on Liquor in Delaware.
Wilmington, Del., Nov. 2.—The voters of Delaware next Tuesday will have their first opportunity to ballot on the issue of prohibition. The campaign for and against the saloons has been one of the most exciting ever waged in this state and the result is awaited with keen interest. The vote will be by districts. It is generally expected that the larger cities will decide against prohibition, but it would not be surprising if the rural counties went "dry."

In Rhode Island.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 2.—The present campaign in Rhode Island has been to a considerable extent a duplication of that of last year when James H. Higgins, a democrat, was elected. He has made a popular governor, has been re-nominated, and the indications are that he will be re-elected. The republican candidate is Frederick H. Jackson, the present lieutenant governor of the state. The republicans, while not sure of the governorship, are confident of electing the remainder of their ticket.

For Minor Officers in Nebraska.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—Nebraska will elect several minor state officers Tuesday, including a judge of the supreme court and university regents. Interest centers almost wholly in the judicial contest. The republican incumbent is a candidate for re-election and is opposed by George L. Leach of Fremont, candidate of both the democratic and populist parties.

Already Settled in Mississippi.
Jackson, Miss., Nov. 2.—Little or no interest is manifested in next week's election in Mississippi. This is due to the fact that the contest was settled by the democratic primary last summer. James K. Vardaman will be succeeded in the governorship by E. F. Noel.

Three New Arrivals: Alderman and Mrs. John J. Sheridan are rejoicing over the arrival of a ten-pound baby boy. An infant daughter arrived yesterday to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Robinson on Mineral Point avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farrington of the town of Patton are also happy over the arrival of a baby daughter.

UNCLE Sam—Here, there! Don't drag me in.

BRYAN GETS BASE BALL PASS ALREADY

Nebraska Receives Pass to National League Games in Return For Strong Editorial.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—William J. Bryan today received an annual pass from President Murphy of the National Baseball League. Mr. Bryan devoted a forcible editorial to the boosting of baseball several weeks ago.

ABBORDS SUBSIDIARY LINES.

Great Northern Files Deeds Conveying Minor Minnesota Roads.
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 2.—Deeds were filed Friday with the secretary of state, conveying to the Great Northern Railroad company all the subsidiary lines of that system in Minnesota. The deeds filed covered the following lines: Minnesota & Great Northern; consideration, $1,000; Wilmar & Sioux Falls; consideration, $7,327,904.23; Park Rapids & Leech Lake; consideration, $512,817.24; Eastern Railway of Minnesota; consideration, $16,783,545.04; Minneapolis Union railway; consideration, $808,407.16.

Deeds were filed Thursday transferring to the Great Northern the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba road. Attorney General Young is at a loss to understand the reason for the absorption of its subsidiary lines by the Great Northern, and is making an investigation to learn, as he says, "if it is on the square." In the supreme court at the present time quo warranto proceedings looking to the revocation of the charter of the St. Paul & Manitoba are pending, and if the transfer of that road to the Great Northern, which was made Thursday, is simply one of property, then the question, Mr. Young says, is disposed of. Under such an absorption by the Great Northern company, the Manitoba road and its charter rights would be no more.

DIG WINE CELLARS BURNED.

Largest and Oldest Plant in Chautauqua Grape Belt Destroyed.
Dunkirk, N. Y., Nov. 2.—The G. B. Rickmans Wine company cellars at Dunkirk, the largest and oldest plant in the Chautauqua grape belt, were destroyed by fire Friday night. There was over three-quarters of a million gallons of wine in the cellars and the loss will reach $250,000, partly covered by insurance. The flames for a time threatened to wipe out a good part of the village.

Shoots Wife and Himself.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—Barred by the refusal of his wife to live with him, Frank Sigmund entered the home of a neighbor where the woman was visiting in the village of Euclid, a suburb, Friday afternoon, and shot her twice, inflicting mortal wounds. He then turned the weapon on himself. The physicians say that even should he recover he would be blind for the remainder of his life.

MILLIONS MORE IN THE BANKS OF NEW YORK

BANK REPORTS SHOW INCREASE OF THIRTY-SEVEN ODD MILLIONS.

SCRIPT CURRENCY ISSUED

Washington Reports Are Encouraging Today—Pittsburg and St. Louis Issuing Script.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Nov. 2.—According to today's bank statement the banks hold $38,529,000, less the requirements of the 25 per cent rule. Last week the deficit was $1,223,000.

In Pittsburg.
Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—The clearing or script system, decided upon here yesterday owing to the money stringency in general, was put in operation here today by members of the clearing house association. Under the system the enormous industrial pay roll of about seven million dollars per week will be met by employers paying their employees in checks of $5, 10, 15 and 20-dollar denominations, the odd sums being satisfied with cash. The landlord, the grocer and the butcher are expected to accept these checks from customers the same as currency.

Better Outlook.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—The treasury officials are agreed that the financial situation is distinctly improving daily and advisers from the financial centers today were of very reassuring character. The national banks in all parts of the country are arranging to increase their circulation and treasury officials and clerks are working overtime in an effort to keep up with their vastly increased correspondence.

Blue, Yellow and Red.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—Little blue, yellow and green slips of paper in denominations of one, five and ten dollars were put into circulation as money today by three national banks.

TWO NEGROES DIED AT THE ROPE'S END

One Man Killed Young Cuban—The Other Protected Murderer from Police.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Mobile, Ala., Nov. 2.—Abe Sumrell and Hank Lucas, negroes, were lynched early today at Vinegar Bend, near here. Sumrell murdered a young Cuban Monday night while the latter was trying to arrest the negro for burglary. Lucas' crime was that of protecting Sumrell from the officers.

SQUAWKS OF WILD DUCKS AWAKENED MANY SLEEPERS

Between Two and Three o'Clock This Morning—Myriads of the Birds Passed Over City on Way South.
While the sky was overcast, several hours before daylight this morning Wilson Lane and several other residents were awakened by the squawks of wild ducks—thousands of them—flying low and passing over the city in several dense flocks. The birds were evidently on their migration southward and the police with which they filled the night lasted for perhaps a half hour.

GOPHERS LEAD AT END OF THE HALF

Grand Stand Falls With Crowd—Details Not Given—Other Scores.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Middletown, Nov. 2.—At the end of the first half the University of Minnesota led by a score of 8 to 6. Between the halves the grand stand on the east section broke but details have not been given. The other scores of the first half were:
Polo Grounds, N. Y.—Princeton, 10; Carleton, 0.
Ithaca, N. Y.—Cornell, 0; Western University Pennsylvania, 5.
University Pennsylvania, 10; Lafayette, 0.

W. H. TRIPP PLANTED ANOTHER TREE TODAY

It is the 120th Anniversary of the Abolition of Frances Sloum by Delaware Indians.
W. H. Tripp, the venerable resident of Rock county who will be 87 years old on Nov. 18, next, planted another tree today. It was in commemoration of the 120th anniversary of the abolition of Frances Sloum from her home at Whitesboro, Pa., by two Delaware Indians. She was then five years old. Sixty years later she was found with a Miami tribe near Peru, Indiana, unable to speak English and unwilling to leave the tribe into which she had been adopted. A monument to her memory was erected at her grave on May 17, 1906, and Mr. Tripp and Mrs. Potter of Whitesboro attended the ceremonies. The girl's mother was Ruth Tripp, a relative of the Rock county octogenarian. She died March 7, 1847. For seven years past Mr. Tripp has each year planted a tree in commemoration of the incident.

Old Man Poisons Children.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 2.—The Wheeling police are searching for an elderly man who seemingly has a mania for poisoning factory girls and school children. Friday six children of the Madison school were given chocolate creams believed to have been saturated with carbolic acid. Two of them are in a serious condition. Last Tuesday the mysterious man gave poisoned candy to three girls employed at the plant of the North Wood Glass Works.

Freight Steamers in Collision.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 2.—Two large bulk freight steamers met in a head-on collision Friday night in the St. Clair river opposite Algonac. The steamer Reliance of the Mitchell fleet, was sunk in 26 feet of water and the steamer Monroe C. Smith of the United States Transportation company was beached on Russell's Island to prevent her sinking.

Convicted of Murder at Pana.

Pana, Ill., Nov. 2.—Ernest Saunders, aged 21 years, was found guilty Friday of the murder of John Lusk and his sentence fixed at 25 years in the penitentiary. His defense was based on the unwritten law and self-defense.

Fires Into Crowd and Hits Seven.

Elkins, W. Va., Nov. 2.—Seven persons were shot and painfully but not fatally injured at Parsons, W. Va., near here, Friday night, when William Smith, who afterward escaped, is said to have fired into a crowd.

HOT ELECTION CONTESTS IN OHIO CITIES NEXT TUESDAY

Burton-Johnson Fight In Cleveland Will Have Almost National Significance--Demo- crat May Be Defeated In Cincinnati.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Ohio will hold her first election next Tuesday under the new law, which separates municipal elections from state and national elections, and local issues, therefore, alone engage the attention of the voters and the difficulty of forecasting results is increased by the fact that in municipal elections the Ohio voter exercises his independence to a great degree and casts aside political affiliations.

In Cleveland the mayoralty contest, which overshadowed every other consideration there, is stirring and aggressive. Mayor Tom L. Johnson, the democratic nominee, is up for re-election for the fourth time and has for his opponent Theodore B. Burton, who resigned a seat in congress to enter the contest. If Burton should win it would make him a formidable candidate for governor and increase his chances for succeeding Foraker in the United States Senate. A victory for Johnson might likewise have far-reaching results, as it would probably make him a possibility for the democratic presidential nomination.

The contest for mayor in Cincinnati is one of the most exciting that has taken place in that city in a number of years. Mayor Edward L. Dempsey, democrat, is a candidate for re-election. A considerable element of the democratic party, however, was dissatisfied with Dempsey's method of securing a re-nomination, and the result was the naming of an independent ticket headed by Frank L. Pfaff as the candidate for mayor. The split in the democratic ranks is expected to result in the election of the republican candidate, Colonel Leopold Markbreit, Colonel Markbreit is editor of the Cincinnati Volksblatt, and it is expected he will receive virtually the entire German-American vote.

The enforcement of the Sunday and midnight closing of saloons law is the issue in Columbus. For the first time in its history the local democratic party has presented a candidate on a platform, unequivocally for the enforcement of the "dry" policy of the present mayor, a democrat. It was he who made the issue and his party endorses it as being in line with the sentiment of the people. The republican candidate for mayor and his party managers have not specifically declared for the suppression of saloons on Sunday an either antagonists declare they are being backed by the brewery and liquor interests of Columbus. It is uncertain whether to predict a democratic gain or loss in Columbus. The party has made a vicious fight and claim that their ticket will be elected by a substantial majority. The campaign is to come to a close tonight with a great public meeting in Memorial Hall at which Governor Folk of Missouri will be the speaker.

The situation in Toledo is complicated by the introduction of an independent movement, headed by Brand Whitlock, the present mayor. Both leading parties have complete municipal tickets in the field.

Seven Candidates in Bay State.
Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—Seven candidates are seeking the governorship in Massachusetts, including the republican governor, Curtis Guild, Jr., who is seeking re-election for a third term. Henry M. Whitney, millionaire and brother of the late William C. Whitney of New York, is the regular democratic candidate. Charles W. Bartley, who failed to secure the democratic nomination, is running on an independent ticket and a platform which has as its chief issue opposition to the proposed merger of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and the Boston and Maine railroad. In addition there are candidates on the Socialist Labor, Socialist, Prohibition and Independence League tickets.

One of the most interesting contests is that for district attorney in Suffolk county, which includes Boston. District Attorney John B. Moran, who is completing a two years' term, is up for re-election on the ticket of the Independence League, and also on independent nomination papers. He is opposed by Joseph A. Denison, who served as his assistant for a short time, and who defeated him for the democratic nomination, and by Walter A. Webster, the republican nominee.

HORSE KILLED; MAN HAS A CLOSE CALL

Animal Steps on Live Wire at Evansville and is Killed—Owner Comes Near to Meeting Death in Same Way.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Evansville, Wis., Nov. 2.—Receiving a shock from a live electric wire on the corner of Main and Fifth streets this morning the horse belonging to Isaac Brink was instantly killed and the owner himself came near losing his life while investigating the cause of the animal's falling down. He was driving down the street when the horse stepped on the wire, which was down, and was instantly killed, falling to the ground. Mr. Brink got out of his rig to ascertain the reason why his horse fell down and came near stepping on the wire which would have meant instant death to him also.

HALLOWE'EN PLAYED HAVOC WITH CLINTON

Considerable Damage Done to Town—Black Paint Used to Smear Buildings.
Clinton, Wk., Nov. 2.—Clinton experienced the most insane Halloween Thursday night that this town has ever seen. The youths of the town left no sidewalk unturned in their effort to literally "tear" the town up and every window bore some hideous soap inscription the next morning. Cement steps were even pried up and every pane of glass in the Creamery Supply Manufacturing Co. was broken and the windows were found in the building. Several buildings in the town were smeared with black paint and claims for damages have already been filed and prosecutions are sure to follow. Main street was a spectacle to behold the next morning, tumbled down smoke houses and sheds having been placed in the thoroughfare. C. L. Tuttle has sold his interest in the implement business to his partner, Mayor W. W. Dalton, and in company with Mrs. Tuttle will take a much needed rest, traveling and visiting mostly in Kansas.

O. H. Florida sold a bed of two year glaucous roots last week to a man in Evansville who is starting a glaucous garden. The roots were exceptionally fine. O. L. Woodward has sold recently two large lots of glaucous roots to parties in Elkhart and Poplar Grove. The gardens of both men are becoming quite noted over the state and the gentlemen have more demands for seeds and plants than they can supply.

Mrs. Flora Diekmann leaves soon for Buffalo, N. Y., where she will spend the winter. Before leaving she is having her beautiful home put in shape for the winter.

City Attorney A. A. Cleveland had a case in municipal court at Bolot last week.

The crosswalks and gutters all over town, especially on Main street, are in a very filthy condition.

There will be no school next Thursday and Friday in the high school as Prof. Lawth and his assistants will attend the teachers' convention in Milwaukee.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will not hold their annual fair as they have been doing for several years past.

MISSIONARIES ARE STONED IN HONG KONG

Two Women Missionaries Objects of Missiles From Chinese Who Make Serious Charges.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Hong Kong, Nov. 2.—The Scandinavian mission in the district of Nam-hoi has been attacked by the anti-foreign element of the population. The missionaries, the Misses Wendell and Erlson, were stoned by the Chinese who alleged the native women were forced to become Christians and were kept for immoral purposes.

SIX HUNGARIANS WERE VICTIMIZED

Fall Style in Bunko Games, Worked Here Yesterday, Netted Sharper in Military Toga Just 360.

"Try it in Janesville" seems to be the inspiration of the promoters of every new and beautiful variation of the bunko game. Many have, themselves, been shared just as they were pulling in the net. But the dapper little individual in military uniform and cap ornamented with much gold braid who muffled six hard-working Hungarians, captured at the cigar factory, of 200 in cash—not checks—yesterday, was "far from the madding bustle" when, at the police station about 5 p. m., the victims were awakened to a vaguely receding comprehension of the fact that they had been "stung."

Dark complexioned and apparently about 28 years of age, "Henry Holman" of Chicago, allowed the management of the Grand hotel to believe that he was what he appeared to be—a recruiting officer for the United States army. Hence no suspicion was aroused when six big strapping foreigners called at the hotel about two o'clock yesterday afternoon and asked to be sheltered in Room 42.
A short time thereafter Mr. "Holman" came downstairs and asked what time he could get a train to Detroit.
When informed that the next one left at three o'clock, he said that he had important business to transact there and would take it. In case his callers whom he left in the room should become uneasy, he asked that they be told that he had suddenly found it necessary to go to the line City and would be back here on the 6 o'clock interurban car. About four o'clock the six Hungarians betrayed some restlessness and one or two of the more adventurous went down to the lobby on the first floor to make inquiries. They learned with considerable alarm that their new found friend had left the city and exhibited some highly embellished contracts to show that they had pressing business with him. After scanning these documents Manager David Young at once communicated with the police station.
The game worked by "Sergeant Smith" was so simple as to seem almost childish, though it involved a knowledge of the alien tongue spoken by poor, credulous dupes of his swindling scheme. His lure was a $5-a-month position abroad, including clothing, and wishing to be furnished free as janitor at the "Janesville" Clubhouse. References were not required but the candidate for the highly lucrative job was expected to deposit $50 as an evidence of good faith and sign a contract bearing a highly ornamental green seal and the signatures of such well-known clubmembers as "Mike Mullen" and "Charles Schwartz." When the various members of the sextet approached were unable to produce $50, their naive countryman made retreating concessions, reducing the initiation fee to $10. Thus, each of the number, unknown to the others, jumped at the future wealth and well-being in this land of opportunity, prepared to keep the appointment for "further instructions" at the Grand hotel.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Reading, Ga., August 27, 1908.
Messrs. E. C. Dwyer & Co.,
Chicago, Ills.

Gentlemen:—
In 1887 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that cost me the money. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I packed up one of my Almanacs as a poor wretched Dyspepsia remedy and went west, and that Almanac happened to be the one I received from that little ALMA. THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in three months I was back to my work as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic.
May you live long and prosper.

TREE FALLS ON MAN ATNORTH JOHNSTOWN

William Miller Caught Under Falling Tree and Is Badly Injured.

North Johnstown, Nov. 1.—While a gang of men were at work on the road in front of Mr. Joyce's home, the Monday cutting down the willow trees, one of them happened to fall on Wm. Miller who was assisting in the work. He was hurt quite badly and has been confined to his home ever since. Mr. Miller was formerly of Mississippi.

Mrs. Ward spent one afternoon last week with Mrs. M. J. Joyce.

A party of twenty-five young people gathered at the home of Wm. Cunningham last Tuesday evening for a surprise on Miss Kille. The evening was spent in singing and dancing, after which a dainty luncheon was served. All present enjoyed a very pleasant time.

John Panning is delivering his logs
at Milton today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Devers welcomed a young son to their home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Panning spent Sunday with relatives in Hudson.

A few have attended the funeral of the infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Brown last week.

to Chicago this noon and will remain until the first of next week with relatives and friends.

Miss Clara Oberly will be hostess to a company of friends this evening.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 7, the United States Indian band will give the opening number of the lecture course for this season.

Mrs. Will Campbell of Madison paid a short visit to relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Beth Baker gave a Halloween party to a number of her friends last evening.

INTERESTING SUNDAY EVENING LECTURES

Rev. R. C. Denison Will Talk on Problems of Life at Congregational Church.

On the Sunday evenings in November the Rev. R. C. Denison will speak at the Congregational church on some of the sublimer and problems of everyday life.

Life is everybody's opportunity.
Lauding words, "We can make our lives sublime."

Life is everybody's problem. What write, "Sure, I must fight if I would win."

How shall we make life count for most?

How shall we meet its problems and mysteries?

Following are the topics and dates
of the addresses:

Nov. 3.—What Love Does for Life.
The story of a woman's love.

Nov. 10.—Real Patriotism and Its Glories. The story of a woman patriot.

Nov. 17.—The Mystery and Meaning of Suffering. The story of how one man met his misfortune.

Nov. 24.—Life at Its Highest. The story of a young man's faith.

A cordial invitation is extended to these services.

Mr. Frederick Haynes Newell, who was made chief hydrographer of the United States geological survey department in 1888, is an important factor in this branch of the government service and is very familiar with the slope of land reclamation now being used in Washington. He was born in Bradford, Pa., on March 5th, 1862, and was educated in Northham, Mass. He graduated at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston as a mining engineer in 1885. Mr. Newell married Miss Ella Josephine Mackintosh on April 3, 1890. He was engaged in mining operations in Colorado and was employed as a general mining expert in various states, Mr. New-

NOVEMBER STYLES IN NEW YORK

The grooves of fashion generally fit into each other, and the richness and almost barbaric glitter of gilt or other metal trimmings, illustrates the necessary of plain-colored fabrics, for the display of these varied and brilliant lines. Imagine a yellow dress and skirt embroidered in gilt, or others having solid designs of sponges around the foot border, and above, a combination of gilt sponges and gilt-heads of all sizes. Not waists are on the same order, and yellow embroidered bands varying from three erable variety us to make, some closing at the center of the front with the pretty addition of an embroidered vest in Persian colors, others with a box front, loose back and gusseted bottoms. To shift all tastes, there is the semi-fitted back and almost tight back. Mink jackets are also short.

Russian Pony
This soft, heavy fur is also a favorite this season, and is in both natural color and black. These coats are very similar in cut and trimming to those of ermine, but being the preferred to ten inches in width are intended for waist- or sleeves. Gilt belts are more in vogue than ever, and gilt edgings and tassels of several sizes are effective in evening dresses or trunks.

Other Varieties

Positively the trimming counters of the high-grade shops where gilt is shown, causes the halftone of New York to stare. While not embroidered in gilt is somewhat more refined, and gusseted on white is still more so. Gun metal on gray not is charming, and flit lace also is embroidered in gun metal or gilt, not frequently in large roses of natural hue. Gilt and gun metal compose bands, always with fancy edges. Flit lace comes in white of several widths in yellow and also in black, with lot, beads and spangles.

Jet Trimmings

Jet is by no means overlooked, and in very handsome pieces are set in at intervals. Colored silk braids are a world in themselves, wide and narrow, of various fancy shapes, not the least attractive of which are squares of very fine embroidery, held together only at the corners of the squares.
White or black silk appliques retain their former hold on refined taste, and lace, especially the heavy varieties, meet with their usual patronage.

Furs in Great Demand

Furs are more than ever the essential of the well-dressed woman, and with November's tender sides close at hand, and in all probability a season of even greater luxury and taste.
Crowds of fashionable folk were on hand, desiring to make an early selection from the handsome coats, jackets and other garments included in this elegant display. Each season has its leading fur and this year it is ermine, the finest grade being so soft and silky as to closely resemble brocade. It is shown in the natural brown but more frequently in black.
Short Coats

Very handsome short coats of this fur vary in length from twenty-two to thirty-six inches, and are in consid-trimming for both, often brought over the shoulders and finished in front by handsome buckles, independent of large buttons which ornament the front. Sleeves are three-quarter length and large, which to a certain extent explains the size of fashionable muffs.

The moderate-sized shawl-collar is almost universal.

A Handsome Jacket

A peculiar mink jacket has the dark stripes crossing the shoulders and extending to the lower edge at both back and front, each stripe finished by tall and claws. Short, known sleeves, black pelisses are in good demand, handsomely trimmed with fur and claws. Broadtail and Persian style jackets are not unquestionably fitted, and in some examples, the fronts are cut away, which imparts a very jaunty appearance.
Sleeves remain standard and are in box cut and also in shorter shapes.

Chinchilla

This, the daintiest of furs, comes in cravats, boas, pelisses, muffs and even in box coats, one of which is so unique as to merit special mention.
The stripes are made to form a row of points at the back and also at the front, and a trimming of wide, gray silk braid is around the entire garment, forming a small shawl collar at the neck. Very handsome buttons ornament the front, and the sleeves are edged by plaited, gray chiffon ruffles in addition to the hand. This sensible coat has rounded ends and is broader than those of the past winter. Flat boas are again stylish and come in all furs. Muffs remain in former shapes—the absolutely square, the rounded top and the bag muff.

Ermine

As the fur for white shows no sign of abatement, a piece of this exquisite fur, be it small or large, is a coveted possession, and for evening nothing is so beautiful. Cravats, muffs, pelisses and an occasional hoar coat, presents a charming array, calculated to make one expend for ermine, sums which perhaps belong elsewhere. FANNIE FIELD,

Is the Only

Never a Sign of Wear.

"Dr. Richards, just look at those crowns," said a party recently. "They are as solid and good as they were the day you put them on five years ago."

Lots of people right here in Janesville are wearing dental work done by Dr. Richards much longer ago than the 5 years spoken of by the above party.

He does his work solidly. For permanence. For durability. For lasting qualities.

Once you choose him for your dentist.

You will never change dentists again.

Because he gives satisfaction.

His prices the most reasonable in the city.

He gives about TWICE the amount of work for your money, you will pay elsewhere.

BUSY SOCIETY AT MANY FUNCTIONS

JANESVILLE THE SCENE OF MUCH GAIETY THE PAST WEEK.

LUNCHEONS AND MUSICALES

Many Charming Affairs Planned for Coming Seven Days—Social Happenings.

With November society takes on a more serious air. It is too early for Christmas festivities, too late for the frivolities of summer, but the ideal time to pay social indebtedness with luncheons, teas, afternoon and evening card parties and receptions. It is the dignified period between summer and the holiday seasons, the first meetings of the evening card clubs, the afternoon gatherings of the history and the literary organizations and the musical evenings of those musically inclined.

Mrs. McGowan and Mrs. Frank Behn gave the second of their delightful luncheons on Tuesday last, followed by cards in the afternoon. Mrs. McGowan's home on Milton avenue being tastefully decorated for the occasion. On Wednesday Mrs. Thos. S. Nohr entertained at a one o'clock luncheon at her home on East street followed by cards in the afternoon. On Friday Mrs. Frank Jackson entertained a small luncheon party, followed by bridge. Mrs. P. S. Baker of the Cullen Plaza has issued invitations for two one o'clock luncheons, the first on Wednesday and the second Friday. Mrs. George S. Parker has also issued invitations for a one o'clock luncheon on Thursday next.

Bridge games were frequent this past week. On Thursday Mrs. Claude Hendricks entertained two tables of ladies at bridge. Mrs. Frank Smith entertained the Ladies' Grand Club on the same day. On Friday the Young Ladies' Bridge club was entertained by Miss Janet Ford. The members surprised Miss Ford by appearing dressed in old-fashioned gowns, causing much amusement and adding to the zest of the game. This afternoon Mrs. Charles Pifford is entertaining the Ladies' Afternoon Duplicate Whist club.

For those musically inclined the following program is offered to the Apollo Club and its friends. It is the third concert and is in charge of P. P. Lewis. Mrs. Maud Foulson Holman and Miss Lila Lund being the artists of the evening. The following is the program:

O, Had I Julia's Love.....Handel
Depuis le Jour on ne me s'entend.....Carpentier
Oh Quand Je dors.....Liszt
In Lovely Summer.....Debussy
Chopin Vale, Op. 10.....Godard
En Route.....Godard
Du bist die Ruh.....Schubert
Bitter Lieb.....Schubert
Die Nacht.....Strauss
When Soul is Joined to Soul, Hush!.....Machowell
Constancy.....Machowell
The Lark in the Upland.....Wilson
Friedles.....Gaynor
In the Tops of the Growing Corn.....Neidlinger
Five Little White Heads.....Machowell
Madcap Marjorie.....Norton
There Was an Old Person of Cassel.....Lanz
A Song of Flowers.....Henschel
Sing Heigh Ho.....Henschel
Spring.....Henschel
Voel at Primavera.....Strauss

On Wednesday evening next Mrs. Frank Baines, Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson, Miss Hudson and Miss Edna Hudson have issued invitations for a musicale to be held at the Congregational church at eight o'clock.

This afternoon and evening the club rooms of the Elks lodge are open for inspection of the Elks and their friends. They have been tastefully decorated by a committee of the lodge and present a very pleasing appearance. The steward served several parties of ladies with afternoon tea this afternoon and others will doubtless take advantage of the occasion and inspect the rooms this evening.

On Thursday the Daughters of the American Revolution held their annual state meeting in Beloit. Mrs. W. A. Wheeler and Mrs. G. S. Jackson were among the Janesville Daughters who attended the luncheon given by the Beloit chapter. Mrs. Ogden H. Fether was again elected State Regent at the same meeting.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Thos. S. Nohr entertained at a six o'clock dinner. Eighty guests were present and after a delicious luncheon six-handed encore followed. Mrs. H. S. McGinn and Mrs. Fred H. Capelin were the winners of the two first prizes and Miss Jeanne Cleland and Dr. R. R. Powell the two consolation prizes. During the evening Miss Nina Cutler gave several readings which were most charming.

This afternoon the first meeting of the Ladies' History Club with the Young Ladies' Auxiliary held their first meeting in the lecture room of the High School. Professor Richardson of Beloit is the leader for the coming winter and today's lecture was most interesting as a prelude of what is to follow.

Mrs. G. F. Hingham entertained a dozen young ladies yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Ida Bennett, of Chicago, at her home, 2075 North Jackson street.

Miss Elma Spencer entertained a company of ten friends at a Halloween party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spencer, 15 South Hill street, Thursday evening.

Miss Vesta Bradley entertained about thirty of her young friends last evening at a Halloween party at the home of her parents on Milton Ave.

Miss Mary Hurlinger of Philadelphia is the guest of Mrs. Herbert Ford.

Miss Bonnie Woodie of Monroe is the guest of Miss Mac Humphrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hoderick of Juda visited in the city today.

KILLED, TRYING TO BOARD INTERURBAN

Freeport Man Victim of Accident Few Blocks from His Destination.

Falling to step back far enough from the track after hailing an interurban car on the outskirts of Beloit last evening Leonard Sathoff of Freeport, Ill., was struck on the head by one of the grab handles and mortally injured. The impact threw him into the gutter and he was picked up in a semi-comatose condition. The car carried him at full speed to the corner of East Grand avenue and State street in Beloit, where it was located by emergency hospital. Just as he was being removed from the car he gasped violently and succumbed. Sathoff had come to Beloit with Fred Blinger of Freeport. The latter had intended to visit a relative. The motorman on the car on which the two came to the Line City carried them past their stopping place and over the bridge in the northern part of the city. There they left the car and walked till the southbound car came along. As a dense fog enveloped everything Sathoff stepped on the track and waved his hat to be sure of stopping the car. On stepping off he failed to go far enough and the tragedy occurred. Sathoff was a single man about 35 years of age. He had been working in the I. C. depot at Freeport for about two years. He is a Modern Woodman, being a member of the Sleepy Eye, Minn., camp and held a policy of $1,000. A number of Janesville people were on the car and witnessed the accident.

RUMOR OF ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE DENIED

Madison House Management Claims to Know Nothing of Miss Jess Thomas' Attempt to End Life With Chloroform.

There was a persistent rumor abroad today to the effect that a young woman named Jess Thomas, supposed to be in the employ of Mrs. Mildred Hallett who recently abandoned a restaurant which she was conducting near the Knapp & McConnell saloon on West Milwaukee St., had taken the management of the Madison House, just west of the Five Points, attempted to take her life with chloroform Thursday night and that the attempt was frustrated only through a casual inquiry made for her by some friends who had arrived from Beloit. Mrs. Hallett this morning denied all knowledge of any such attempt. A young woman who said her name was Jennie Thomas also marveled that such absurd reports should become current. It was emphatically stated that no one had been found in that hotel lying half dead on her bed with a handkerchief soaked in the narcotic covering her face; and determined to die rather than face an alleged future of extreme unhappiness, as the story went.

SERVANT-GIRL GONE; LIKEWISE VALUABLE PERSONAL EFFECTS

Ellen Bulger Left Home of Dennis Hayes on South Jackson Street Thursday Without Formality of Farewell.

Ellen Bulger—that was the name she gave—a servant girl who had been employed at the home of Dennis W. Hayes on South Jackson street for about a month, suddenly departed for parts unknown Thursday afternoon. Apparently a valise valued at about $8, belonging to Mr. Hayes, a lace waist of considerable value which was the property of Mrs. Hayes, some scarves, aprons, handkerchiefs, and other property, also made their exit. The girl had been paid that afternoon and made her departure and all the preparations for her departure were made. The house, and four, when her return from school. It is believed that she took a foreign car for Rockford. Mrs. Hayes' valise had not been unpacked at the time it was reported but the contents, dumped on the floor of the closet adjoining the girl's room, left no doubt as to what had become of it.

The ingratitude of the girl was quite as remarkable as her boldness in executing this sudden coup. Mrs. Hayes had made some inquiries regarding her at an employment agency and she appeared on the scene one night with a pitiful story of a hard-hearted landlady of the boarding house where she had been staying while employed at the Lewis Knitting works, who refused to allow her to take her belongings away until she should pay about $4 due for board. Having ascertained that this was true and that the girl had no place to go, Mrs. Hayes decided to take her in and advanced the money. Miss Bulger is tall and good looking and about 20 years of age. She has relatives in Watworth and has worked at Darien and a number of other neighboring towns. She was also employed a year at the home of a well-known family in this city. It is said that she left unpaid a bill of about $12 at Archie Bell's and was in debt elsewhere in the city. That she was a young woman of good character was believed by all who knew her. She claimed to be a member of the Methodist church.

MANY MERCHANTS DO HONOR TO THE ELKS

Window Displays Add to Interest in Tonight's Benefit Performance.

In honor of the first benefit performance of the Janesville Lodge, P. O. E. 254, at the Myers Theatre this evening, many merchants have decorated their windows with the Elks' colors, purple and white, and tasteful arrangements greet the eye of the pedestrians. In J. M. Bostwick & Sons' windows a tasteful arrangement including the Elks' clock, several deer heads and the surrounding colors, purple and white, are to be found. In both of Simpson's windows are found suggestions of the Elks and the arrangement of the Milwaukee street millinery display is quite fetching with its color scheme. The Story & Clark Piano store is resplendent with purple and white and made attractive with the music of tonight's performance. Copies of this music are to be sold in the theatre tonight for the benefit of the Elks. At Ploek's the window display is exceedingly tasteful and shows considerable care in designing. In other stores suggestive of this line the Elks' night are to be found with arrangements of purple and white. This afternoon many are enjoying the sight of the Elks' Club rooms which have been tastefully decorated by a committee composed of H. W. McNamara, R. H. Baldwin, J. J. Cunningham, and George Sale under the direction of Edward Amerhold. The theatre itself has also been tastefully arranged for the evening by the same committee. The curtain will be rung up at nine and the Elks and their friends are invited to inspect the club night before and after the performance.

STRANGERS MAKE USE OF Y. M. C. A. ROOMS

Out of Town Men Call Frequently at Association Building Where All Men Are Welcome.

Strangers in larger numbers have been passing through Janesville this fall than during any previous season and while in the city have dropped in on the local Y. M. C. A. building to spend their time between trains or while away an hour or so when they are not busy. Secretary J. C. Kline declared this morning that more men from out of the city have called at the Y. M. C. A. building in the past few months than ever before. Upon their first visit to the building they have become acquainted with the excellent reading rooms and when again passing through here they have made use of the same when their time was unoccupied. Many inquiries have come to the secretary lately from men who have recently come to the city to work to know if they are welcome at the building unless they are members of the association. Many have been under the impression that only members were entitled to the use of the reading rooms and have repaired every night the idea has solved them to enquire whether or not they could come there. In all cases they have been told that the reading rooms are open to all men no matter whether they belong to the association or not. Mr. Kline stated this morning that he wished the impression conveyed that every man is welcome to the use of the reading material of the association between the hours of 7:30 in the morning and 10 o'clock at night, longer than most any other association building in this part of the country is open.

The Junior department class in gymnasium work started this morning at 9 o'clock under the direction of Physical Director William Mummet. The Juniors will meet for "gym" drill every Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from now on.

Beginning next Wednesday evening the first basketball game of a league series among the intermediates will be played. Following the basketball class, The Intermediates have formed four basketball teams who will play a series of games this winter to determine the championship of the class.

A postprandial program will be given, for which several of the pastors have been assigned topics.

Remaining Young Long.

One step in this twentieth century we are making in the right direction—we are remaining young much longer. Our grandmothers took to caps at 40 and became old women before they had attained to middle age. Now we are frisky at 60 and are taking our part in social life well on in the twenties, many even in the eighties, and some fortunate people when over 90.

The Rock County National Bank has issued today and will continue to issue as long as it is necessary printed cashier's checks in the denominations of 1, 2, 5 and 10 dollars.

The checks are printed on blue paper, are payable to bearer and will do away with the necessity for indorsement.

Merchants may have a number of these checks on hand and use them in making change in place of currency.

BITS OF HUMOR

WHAT INTERESTED HIM MOST.

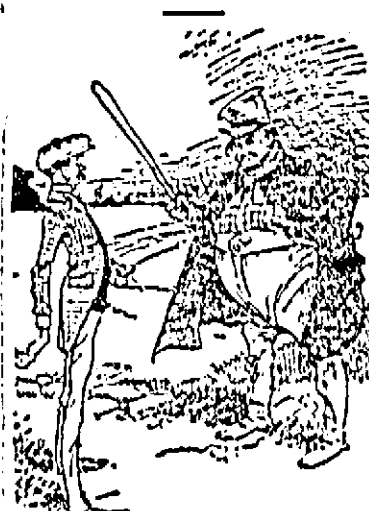

Fair Girl—My father made his fortune while he was a young man. Wouldn't you like to know how he did it?
 Youth—Well—or, no, but I'd like to know if he has still got it.

AT A FANCY DRESS BALL.

Miss Hichestone—No, Lord Hanglesey, I cannot marry you. I'm so much below you in station.
 Lord H.—Oh Woe, don't say that. Why, oh why, wasn't I born lower in life? Now if I'd only been born a shoeshack—oh no, no. No offense, dash it all!—Exit Miss H.—Punch.

WILLING TO GIVE HER UP.

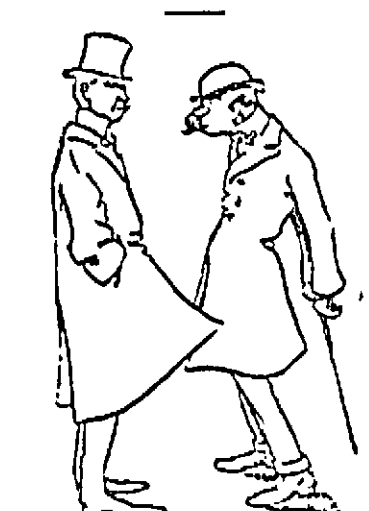

Murderous Mike—Yer money or yer life!
 Tompkins (who's a little hard of hearing)—No money or no wife! Oh take her, take her! and spare me!

WILLING TO HELP HIM.

He—I told your father I couldn't live without you.
 She—And what did he say?
 He—Oh, he offered to pay my funeral expenses.

IRRESISTIBLE.

The Lounge—But, I said, though all the world should forsake me when I'm in need, I've always got dear old Brown. (Brown couldn't resist that).
 —Pick Me Up.

BAD OVERSIGHT.

She—But a man last week told me the same story.
 He—Yes, lady, you see I made the mistake of not having the history of my life copyrighted!—Chicago Journal.

SYMPATHETIC.

Engineer—You are not alone in your troubles. My business, for instance, is constantly breaking up.
 Bankrupt—Er, what is your line, sir?
 Engineer—Stone crushing!—N. Y. Telegram.

Jack—You are holding your parasol on the wrong side to protect you from the sun.
 Evelyn—Yes, I know it; but there is that horrid Miss Snub, and I want her to see my new hat.

WOULD STICK TO THAT.

The Baby's Mother—I give baby all sorts of things to play with, but he won't stick to anything.
 The Baby's Uncle—Try a bottle of glue.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

QUIET PREVAILS
IN MONEY CIRCLESCASH ONCE MORE FLOWING INTO THE STRONGER BANKS.

MORE GOLD IS ENGAGED

Lusitania Bringing About $10,000,000—
 Pittsburg Adopts Small Check System—Oklahoma Cotton Growers to Withhold Crop.

New York, Nov. 2.—The financial situation was gradually clearing Friday without showing any striking features. Thus on the banks and trust companies are practically over money, which was temporarily withdrawn from banks subject to runs, is flowing into the stronger banks and currency is being provided in most cases where the demand for it is considered legitimate.

Further engagements of gold by Boston and other points have brought up the total engagements abroad under the recent movement to $26,550,000. The Lusitania, which sailed from Liverpool Friday, has on board about $10,000,000 in gold, one of the largest single shipments ever made. Prices on the exchange were firm during the early part of the day and did not yield seriously at any time.

Domestic Exchange Blocked.
 Balances with the clearing houses have settled down to a normal condition, but there is still something of a blockade in domestic exchange through the unwillingness of New York banks to pay currency on drafts from other cities and the unwillingness of other cities to pay out their currency upon drafts from New York. The condition of affairs indicates a continued pressure for currency rather than a breakdown of credit, but reasonable demands are being met for regular customers of the banks.

The possibility of hastening the export movement of wheat and cotton still engages the attention of foreign exchange dealers, and also of those who endeavor to keep in touch with the general situation.

To Pay by Check in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—The Pittsburg clearing house committee Friday night announced the details of a plan upon which it has been working for some days, whereby the vast industrial army of the Pittsburg district is to be paid in bank checks of small denominations in lieu of currency. The object sought to be attained by the action is to insure the steady operation of all mills and factories in the district during the existing money stringency and to continue the present unexampled prosperity. It was decided to have the various manufacturing establishments pay their workmen with checks in denominations of $5, $10 and $20, in place of cash. These checks, when properly signed by employers, will be used as currency and will be accepted as cash by tradesmen.

The pay roll of the Pittsburg district now exceeds $1,000,000 a day and is fast growing, and the belief of the bankers is that this plan will keep many thousands of workmen in steady employment who might otherwise be denied work this winter.

Boston Thanks Morgan Et Al.

Boston, Nov. 2.—The Boston stock exchange Friday adopted resolutions thanking J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates for their action in the recent financial crisis. The resolutions were offered at a special meeting of the exchange held at the close of business.

Will Withhold Cotton Crop.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 2.—Cotton growers in all parts of Oklahoma and Indian Territory Friday held secret meetings and discussed the cotton market situation. It was decided to hold the 1907 pick until cotton prices have advanced to a certain point.

The cotton growers have a compact organization and each member is sworn to secrecy. It is rumored the minimum price at which farmers will sell was fixed at 16 cents.

The action of cotton growers to hold the crop is considered in a favorable light by financial concerns, as indicating that the "fury" has not frightened the agriculturists and that they are not in need of ready money. The fact that the banks will not be called on to supply cotton purchase funds will have much to do in restoring normal conditions. It is estimated that over 10,000 bales of cotton will be held out of the market in Logan county alone.

Guthrie Banks Reopen.

At noon Friday afternoon the five Guthrie banks reopened for business under the limited payment plan, after a four days' holiday during which no business was transacted. The deposits greatly outnumbered the withdrawals. While there were serious who took advantage of the five dollar a day allowance, the currency in each bank was increased by several thousand dollars.

Helme to Quit Montana Bank.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 2.—M. S. Largey, president of the State Savings bank, which closed its doors two weeks ago, states that P. Augustus Helme will retire from the bank in a few days. Helme owns one-half of the stock. Mr. Largey says the bank will be reorganized and will reopen in the near future.

Bella McKenzie, One of the Comedian's Accusers, Also Is Missing and Sought by the Police.

New York, Nov. 2.—The bondsmen of Raymond Hitchcock still have five days in which to deliver the comedian to the court, where he is charged with offenses against young girls.
 It was hinted Friday that the actor was living quietly in this city and would be on hand to face his accusers when the case is called next Wednesday. Neither his wife, it is said, nor his bondsmen and counsel, have received the slightest clue to his whereabouts.

The police, without regard to the original case, seeking to make an immediate arrest on the strength of six indictments returned by the grand jury on Wednesday the day that Hitchcock disappeared, continued their search, canvassing the lodging houses of the theatrical district, keeping posted at the railway and steamship terminals, and even calling upon the authorities of other cities to hold Hitchcock should he be recognized in their locality.

Bella McKenzie Missing.

A new twist to the complicated case was given Friday when the police attempted to locate Bella McKenzie, aged 17 years, one of Hitchcock's accusers. She left home a month ago and subsequently took rooms in West Sixtieth street. According to agents of the Children's society, who had met Hitchcock since his troubles began, she left her last lodging about the time the actor was indicted.

The police believe that the girl could throw some light on what has become of Hitchcock.

May Try to Release Girls.

It was said that an effort would be made to obtain the release, under habeas corpus proceedings, of Elsie Voelck and Helen Von Hagen, two of the girls who testified before the grand jury, and who are now detained in the House of the Good Shepherd. The agents of the Society probably will fight the release, alleging that friends of Hitchcock are behind the proceedings.

The only other developments Friday were in the way of new theories regarding the actor's disappearance. The most fanciful theory, and one which found some favor, was that the actor had called into play his "make-up" genius and, by a clever disguise, was enabled to roam at will about the city.

DYNAMITE IN TRUNK EXPLODES.

Blast in Pittsburg Depot Seriously
 Injures Two Men.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—A panic among about 300 persons in the Union station was narrowly averted Friday when a terrific explosion occurred in the baggage room under the waiting room. A quantity of dynamite packed in a checked trunk was set off, presumably by concussion due to handling the trunk.

James Lyons, a baggage assembler, and David Chappell, a porter, were seriously but not fatally injured. Charles Hatch was arrested.

 The proposition is being discussed to pull down the Bank of England building, which is one story in height and covers eight acres, house it in a seven-story building on a portion of the site and sell the remainder of the land, the value of which is estimated at $32,500,000.

Married
Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

RAPID GROWTH OF NEW YORK CITY UNDERGROUND

NEW YORK.—An investigator with a bent for facts of curious interest has discovered that while the skyscrapers of Manhattan are pushing to greater and greater heights, the city underground has been growing even more rapidly. According to his computation a hundred thousand persons carry on their daily occupations beneath the streets and below the waters of Greater New York. Some of these are callous workers laying the foundations of huge buildings, employees of the various tunnels pushing their way under the North and East rivers and workmen in the subways. In addition to this specialized line of underground activity, there are certain industries carried on almost entirely beneath the surface. One of these is baking, and it is stated that nearly all the bread and pastry eaten by New Yorkers is prepared below the ground. There are thousands of small shops on the east side that occupy cellars without light or ventilation except such as comes from the single entrance reached by a steep flight of steps from the street.

Devotees of the more fashionable life also are taking to underground life since some of the new hotels and department stores have utilized the space below the surface of their stores with doors leading to and from the subways.

It is pointed out that a man can come from Chicago to New York, put up at a hotel, visit several stores, transact business at a downtown office building and return home without once setting foot out of doors. This state of affairs undoubtedly presages the time when there will be an underground city extending over the whole lower part of Manhattan Island, with its own streets, shops and systems of transportation. Perhaps in time a race of real human moles will develop in the metropolis.

HUNDRED WOMEN SPEND $35,000 YEARLY ON DRESS

EXPERT opinion fixes the average annual cost of a New York woman's clothing at $285. This is not a large sum, but it is a figure on which balances the thousands who do not spend $20 and the scores who spend $35,000. A gown for the latter costs more than the entire expense of the family of the former.

There are about 100 women in the metropolis who spend $35,000 a year each on dress, and it is not difficult to do so if one gets the necessary gown and accompaniments in order to be well dressed for each of the numerous occasions required by social custom. Then there are some 12,000 women in the city who each spend $14,000 a year, and about 6,000 who go close to $5,000.

One day's shopping, not buying, simply as an experiment, showed how easy these highest figures can be reached. A furrier offered a fine sable coat for a "reasonable price" of $9,000, while the milliner suggested a fitting hat to go with it for $70, and the bootmaker selected proper foot-wear for $12. The coat does not have to be renewed every month, but there must be other coats, and it was learned that the proper complement from opera cloak down to the smallest jaunty street affair of fine cloth and extensive trimming would cost a trifle of something like $20,000. Then there should be a matter of twenty-five hats, with their decorations of fine feathers and lace that average not more than $55 each, and there must be more shoes than hats that can be had from $8 to $20 a pair. Hats and shoes are subject to frequent change.

This is all very well for the outside but there must be at least a score of gowns to go with this, and gowns soon grow old and must be frequently renewed.

For the other clothing, including furs and parafur, it is difficult to get figures, for there is such a broad latitude in taste, quantity and quality, and frequent changes make purchases of almost daily occurrence. The cost soon runs into the thousands and makes the total expenditure of $35,000 a year quite easy, to say nothing of the jewels, which are supposed to endure for some time; subject to the change in fashion.

ILLINOIS SENATORS DO NOT EXPECT HOUSE TO YIELD.

Primary Measure Probably Will Go to Joint Conference Committee—Passed by the Senate.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—Before leaving for home Friday afternoon, members of the senate were freely predicting that the members of the house would not accept the senate amendments to the Oglesby primary bill, which passed the upper branch Friday morning by a vote of 40 to 8.

If it is found necessary to resort to a joint conference committee to adjudicate the differences between the two chambers, there is a prospect of a prolonged wrangle, unless the senate recedes from its amendments to the bill.

Gov. Deneen already has expressed his disapproval of the action of the senate in stripping the measure of primary control of party machinery. Friends of the governor in the house are believed to be likely to stand by his position. As Speaker Shurtliff already has declared his intention to name administration house members on the joint conference committee, if one is asked for, it is generally expected that the senate conference will find themselves arrayed against an uncompromising house contingent.

Several explanations were made on the floor of the senate with the roll call on the primary bill was in progress. Mr. Curtis declared he believed the bill to be unconstitutional, and, after having had two bills declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, he thought it would be exceedingly humiliating for the senate to have another adjudged invalid. He believed the people would not approve of the nomination of supreme judges by plurality vote and argued that the nomination of state officers by this method would permit Cook county to control the entire ticket.

Mr. Humphrey questioned the constitutionality of the bill, and was particularly opposed to its application to Cook county, declaring it would disfranchise a large majority of the voters in country towns.

Mr. Jones voted for the bill with the hope that the house would take out the iniquitous feature that has been put in by the senate and would replace some of the desirable features that had been stricken out.

The house was in session just long enough to advance Schormerhorn's watch inspection bill to third reading. Both branches adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Curative Effect of Salt.
The curative effects of salt have never been shown as they should be. Sore and inflamed eyes are relieved by bathing with salt water. Sore throat yields to a gargle of the same. Consumption can be cured by the persistent use of half a teaspoonful of salt in a glass of water taken just before going to bed.

When Tired Eat Raisins.
Raisins, by the way, are now recommended as a "pick-up" between meals. One well-known London doctor affirms that a bunch of raisins eaten when fatigued is of more value than a glass of wine under such circumstances.

Arrives with Cargo on Fire.
Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 2.—With her cargo of 500 sacks of kumito on fire and the crew exhausted from fighting the flames, the Norwegian bark Barneat, from Huelva for Pensacola, was towed into port Friday. Tug boats immediately went to the rescue of the vessel and the fire was got under control.

The Skeleton at the Feast.
"The dinner was going all right," said the superstitious man, "until the cross-eyed girl came to the telephone and stood facing the table, talking with a friend, but looking straight at us—not straight exactly—with her maimed eyes. Then the waiter got cross and spilled the soup and brought the macaroni without the cheese and the cheese without the macaroni and forgot the butter and nearly forgot the bread and froze the coffee and left out the sugar, and, well, just about everything happened that could happen at that table after the cross-eyed girl came and stood there telephoning and looked at us."

The Quaker Boy.
For truly the Pennsylvania Quaker farm and homestead was a great place for a boy to grow into a man. The old conditions lasted till the civil war. Since then there has been a gradual scattering of the old families, and these places have been taken by immigrants and renters of another type. The old race will be largely extinct in another generation; but many a man now in middle life or beyond who has made his mark in Philadelphia or elsewhere in business or professional life, blesses the fate that gave him the physical and moral basis of such a boyhood.—Isaac Sharpless in the Atlantic.

Largest Tree in Sicily.
Sicily boasts the largest tree in the world. It is known as "The Chestnut Tree of a Hundred Harms," and is situated at the foot of Mount Etna. It has five enormous branches, each as large as an ordinary tree, issuing from a trunk which is 212 feet in circumference. A large hollow in the trunk is capacious enough to contain a flock of sheep. Its name originated in the story that Queen Joan of Aragon with her nobility and their retinues once took refuge from a violent storm under its spreading branches.

The Modern Hero.
"He is wonderfully handsome," said the impressionable girl. "He looks like the hero of a novel." "Not at all," answered Miss Cayenne; "he is neither a gentlemanly burglar nor an adept in slang."

ANENT THE HARRIMAN-FISH RAILROAD CLASH

THE fight for the control of the Illinois Central railroad between E. H. Harriman and E. H. Fish recalls other clashes between men who deal in railroads. Many people remember the bitter fight waged two years ago by Joseph Harriman, Jr., then president of the Wabash, against George J. Gould, with the avowed purpose of wresting the system from him. It was a hot fight while it lasted, and many unpleasant words were said on both sides. Yet if you were to go into the Wabash offices you would see among the photographs on the wall, one enclosed in a narrow black frame, the portraits of Mr. Harriman and Mr. Gould, placed side by side, as though they were the best of friends. The two portraits will probably remain framed together until they become yellow and timeworn as the other monuments of the past that are on the Wabash office walls.

This is only a slight evidence of the rule of Wall street to stifle or conceal its personal feelings. And yet, beneath the surface, bankers, railroad financiers and capitalists are banded in hostile groups or camps that prey on one another. Even the fair sex enters into the secret wars, and many a social rivalry is transferred from the drawing-room to the financial fighting grounds in Wall and Broad streets. One very aggressive matron not so long ago convulsed not alone society, but also the financial district, by making an observation that is still being repeated in the millionaire's clubs. It was at the close of the life insurance investigation, when E. H. Harriman made his famous trip to San Francisco, just after the earthquake. "Yes," said the matron, "after having robbed the policy holders, he's going out to San Francisco now to rob the dead."

HOTELS MORE LENIENT TOWARD GOOD CANINES

WELL-MANNERED dogs are now permitted to pay calls in some of the hotels which have been closed against them. Even at the Waldorf-Astoria, where there has been for years a stern rule that none of the canine family may be received except in the basement kennels, there have been signs of leniency.

It was only recently that a Pomeranian of aristocratic lineage was permitted to enter the elevator and was escorted to the fifth floor. But this kind of license is not often given, and no really large dogs with well set jaws and impolite ways with their teeth would be tolerated. The Pomeranian was brought up to the Thirty-third street entrance of the Waldorf-Astoria in a cab by a very posh-looking young woman. "I would like to take my dog up to show him to Mrs. Blank," she said. "Will it be all right, do you think?" "You will carry him?" asked the clerk. "Oh, yes," was the reply. "Hoozee is so little I can hold him in my arm."

"It will be all right, then," replied the clerk. Although the hotels of the city do not generally advertise the fact there has been a disposition lately to permit dogs and other animals on the premises if they are well behaved. The Hotel Savoy represents the extreme in the exclusion policy, for none is permitted to enter the portals, and not a sign to that effect is displayed. The Burlington, a family apartment hotel in West Thirtieth street, near Fifth avenue, which is owned by Mrs. Richard Hudnut, who is a fancier herself, publicly invites those who have dogs to come to its roof.
